

EUGENE BUSH III

Producer · Director · Cinematographer | "E-Trè"

Founder & CEO, E-Tre Productions, Inc. — Chicago & Atlanta

Eugene Bush III spent fifteen years in IT and finance before a church sketch he filmed went viral — and a $5,000 gospel music video that aired on BET turned a side passion into a company. Since founding E-Tre Productions in 2010, he has produced live-event films for Hennessy, Heineken, and eOne, walked the Grammys red carpet, and built one of Chicago's most sought-after independent production houses, now operating in Chicago and Atlanta.

His credits span award-winning film, streaming comedy, and work with Grammy-winning poet J. Ivy, two-time Grammy Award-winning vocalist Tarrey Torae, singer-songwriter Jill Scott, Broadway star Chester Gregory, and comedians Kountry Wayne and Just Nesh.

A computer-science graduate turned filmmaker, Bush runs every stage of production himself — writing, directing, multi-camera shoots, high-end post, and streaming distribution that places independent titles on Prime Video, Tubi, and Roku. For seven years he produced Greenlit ATL, Atlanta's longest-running monthly film and TV networking event, carrying it through the pandemic with a digital showcase that kept artists creating. Today he pours that experience back into the next generation — coaching rising creators and entrepreneurs on turning their craft into a career.
